Additional Info

Our home is nestled in the beautiful Hudson Valley countryside, surrounded by nature and far from the hustle of city life. With this peaceful setting comes the rare—but possible—risk of utility interruptions such as brief power outages or water disruptions, especially during severe weather events or regional infrastructure work.

While these occurrences are uncommon, we believe in being transparent. We have backup plans in place and respond quickly to resolve any issues should they arise. Most guests enjoy a seamless and comfortable stay, but we want you to be aware of the realities that come with a remote, rural location.

If you're ever unsure or have questions during your stay, we're just a message away and happy to assist in real-time.
