

Explorers' & Artists' Mountain Retreat for 120 Years!

Summary

2 Bedroom / 2 Bathroom Sleeps 4 + a child (or 2)

Description

The house sits on top of the Shawangunk Ridge, in the Hamlet of Cragmoor, looking toward Minnewaska State Park and the Catskill Mountains. It is a 2 story house with the living/dining areas, a sunroom, a bedroom and bath and the kitchen (with washer and dryer) on the 1st floor and one large bedroom with its own bathroom on the second floor. In addition, there is a futon and plenty of room for it on either floor.

The house has central heat and a wood stove on the first floor. Cragsmoor has been home to artists since the late 19th century including, George Inness, Jr, E.L. Henry (who's house is next door) Helen Turner and Charles Curran. Many of its houses and the 100-year-old Cragsmoor Library and the Stone Church were designed by Frederick Dellenbaugh, who charted the West with John Muir and Theodore Roosevelt. Bear Hill, a ten-minute walk from the house, and Sam's Point, a 30-minute walk, feature breathtaking views in opposite directions, some of the best rock climbing in the eastern U.S. and many hikes of different levels of difficulty, to waterfalls, natural ice caves, spring-fed pools.

Both are covered with the famous Shawangunk blueberry bushes, free for the picking. There are spas, golf courses, antique stores, artists studios nearby. There is hang gliding in warm weather and cross country skiing in cold weather. There is the beauty of every kind, man made and God made. The top of Sam's Point is the only place in the world where Dwarf Pitch Pine trees grow, creating an erie landscape of black pine trucks interspersed with white Birches and endless blueberry bushes. And it smells so good!
