

Wooded Hilltop Retreat in historic Saranac Lake

Summary

"THE COOK HOUSE" - 3 Bedroom/3 Bath Year Round House.

Description

Off the beaten path, this quiet non-smoking hilltop home overlooks the Adirondack Mountains and the historic village of Saranac Lake. Saranac Lake provides a central location for your Adirondack adventures.

Saranac Lake provides a central location for your Adirondack adventures. You are only a short drive to Mt. Pisgah Ski and Tubing Center, the Tupper Lake Ski Center and the beautiful new "Wild Center" offering Live Animals as well as walking trails, tours, and Films.

The 1932 and 1980 Winter Olympic Village of Lake Placid is a ten-minute drive. Whiteface Mountain, snowmobiling, skiing, mountain climbing, and hiking trails are short drive or walk. Not to mention close proximity to forty-six of the highest peaks in Adirondack Park. There are several public boat launches (boat parking available at the house) and a variety of boats can be rented locally. Enjoy canoeing, fishing, water-skiing, sailing, and golf.

For those of you who enjoy quaint shops, antiques, fine dining, theatre, outdoor concerts, or pampering at a day spa, these activities are also available in the area. Don't forget the locals' favorite treat - homemade ice cream served at Donnelly's Dairy during the summer months.

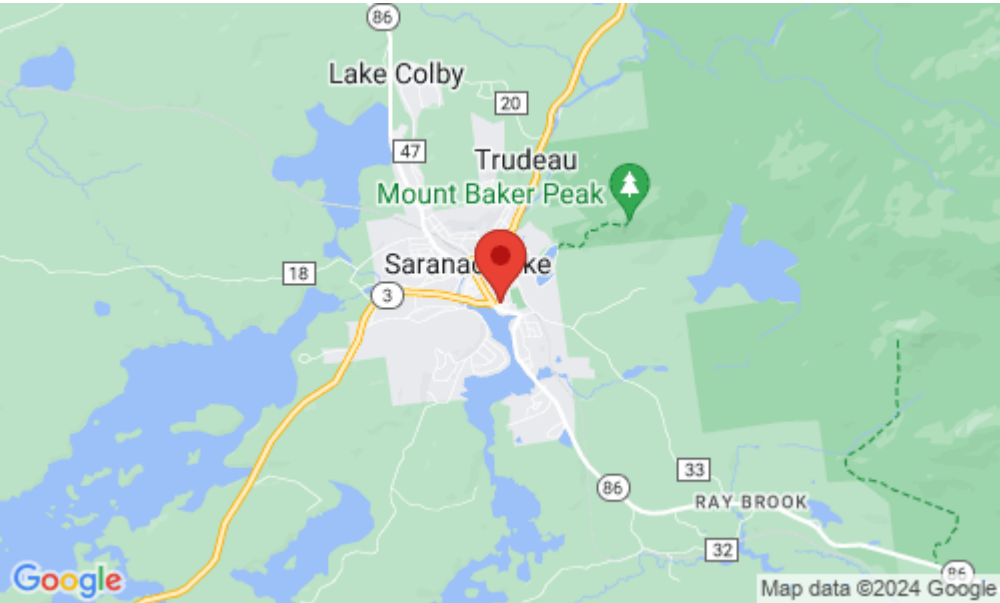

You are only a few miles from the Mt. Pisgah Ski and Tubing Center and Lake Placid.

Enjoy skiing at Whiteface Mtn., boating, rock climbing, hiking, fishing, and golf.

Close to airport, shops, restaurants, and lakeside beach. Lots of fun family activities in beautiful surroundings.
